Musical Prelude—Jay Surdell

Our shared life together, aka, announcements:—

“Here are some things our church is doing this week which just might help us live with greater trust and strength, love and hope in these confusing and sometimes chaotic times.”

Call to Worship—Larry Love

Opening Song—“Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above” Chalice Hymnal #6

1. Sing praise to God who reigns above,
the God of all creation,
the God of power, the God of love,
the God of our salvation.
With healing balm my soul is filled
and every faithless murmur stilled:
to God all praise and glory!
2. Our God is never far away,
but through all grief distressing,
an ever present help and stay,
our peace and joy and blessing.
As with a mother's tender hand
God gently leads the chosen band;
to God all praise and glory!
3. Then all my gladsome way along
I sing aloud your praises
that all may hear the grateful song
my voice unwearied raises.
Be joyful in the Lord, my heart,
both soul and body take your part;
to God all praise and glory!
4. Let all who name Christ's holy name
give God all praise and glory;
let all who own God's power proclaim
around the wondrous story!

Cast each false idol from its throne,
for Christ is Lord, and Christ alone;
to God all praise and glory!

Opening Prayer—Unison—Nancy Love

God of all creation, our hearts are broken
over the destruction and loss we remember this day.
And we acknowledge, O Lord, that on that day
of human carnage yours was the first heart to break.
In our remembering,
may we stand with those who mourn and those who cannot stop mourning.
Through remembering,
may we find new comfort in your care.
In our remembering
may we be drawn to a new hope for the whole world,
and may we gain for ourselves a measure of your peace.
You who can turn the shadow of night into the bright promise of a new day, empower us to shape a world marked by justice and peace for all peoples.
Form us as a people determined to heal wounds rather than inflict them.
We pray at last that you would cultivate such love in us that we may reach out in compassion to all those who are still wounded;
and in seeking to heal others, may we experience a love that makes us whole.
This we pray in the strong name of Jesus our Christ. Amen

Response—“Gloria Patri”

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen. Amen.

Song of Commitment—“This Is My Song” Chalice Hymnal #722

1. This is my song, O God of all the nations,
a song of peace for lands afar and mine.
This is my home, the country where my heart is;
here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;
but other hearts in other lands are beating
with hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.
2. My country’s skies are bluer than the ocean,
and sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine;
but other lands have sunlight too, and clover,
and skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
O hear my song, thou God of all the nations,
a song of peace for their land and for mine.
3. This is my prayer, O Ruler of all nations:
let thy reign come; on earth thy will be done.
In peace may all earth’s people draw together,
and hearts united learn to live as one.
O hear my prayer, thou God of all the nations;
myself I give thee; let thy will be done.

Prayers of Remembrance, Comfort and Hope (a litany), Pastoral Prayer, Lord’s Prayer

Prayers of Remembrance

Leader:

God of the years, we call to you this day when the memories of 9/11 weigh so heavily upon our hearts. We recall with horror and renewed shock that day when airplanes flew into buildings and people perished.

We remember our fear and anger, our confusion, and sense of threat.

All:

We remember all that was lost to us that day:

our sense of security, our peace, our innocence,

our belief that we were safely beyond such random violence and death.

Most of all we remember those who died in New York, Washington and Pennsylvania, their lives of promise extinguished in hatred.

Prayers of Comfort

Leader:

God of mercy, even in our worst moments your loving kindness surrounds us. In those tragic days two decades ago, our confident faith that you were with us enabled us to go on.

We give you thanks for the ways in which you comforted us in those grim days through a deepened sense of community.

We trace the movement of your grace through those among us who risked their lives to save others.

We are comforted by those who offered kindness and shelter to persons in distress, and by those who would not let hatred overcome love.

For those whose witness to a deeper wisdom and faith comforted us, we give you thanks.

All:

For public officials, neighbors, friends and strangers who brought to our troubled lives solace and clarity of purpose, we give thanks.

For the calm and reassuring voices of the wise who gave us comfort and strength, we give thanks.

Prayers of Hope

Leader:

O God, you have taught us that faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.

We live by hope in the future you hold for us and the whole world.

Grant us, we pray, hope for our children and our children's children that they may not know or inflict the horror and terror we recall this day.

Bolster our hope when it flags and teach us to strive in all that we do to realize the hope that is in your Word and witness.

All:

Eternal God, in you our hope is boundless.

You renew hope in us through the promise of a future in which none shall be afraid or lift up sword against a neighbor.

We pray in hope for the peace of the world among peoples and nations, religions and cultures, until we become a beloved community reconciled to one another under your sovereignty.

We give you thanks for the community created, the friendships forged in this 9/11 tragedy, friendships across ethnic and religious bounds, friendships that bring hope for more friendship to come.

Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from the evil:
for thine is the kingdom, and the power
and the glory, forever, and ever.
Amen. Amen.

Responsive Song—“O Lord, Hear My Prayer” Chalice Praise #104

O Lord, hear my prayer; O Lord, hear my prayer. When I call, answer me.
O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer. Come and listen to me.

Closing Song—“Fill the World with Love” Chalice Hymnal #467 (Verses #1, 3, & 4)

1. With the vision in our minds of how the world could be,
and the fullness of our hearts from the suffering we see;
when we make all that we are and have part of God's destiny,
we can fill the world with love, we can fill the world with love.
3. We whose spirits long to share, long to comfort and to heal, know that when we act alone, hope is difficult to feel;
but together as we labor God's compassion to reveal
we will fill the world with love, we will fill the world with love.
4. Let us hesitate no longer in our doubt and our dismay;
there's a pow'r at work within us that has promised a new day.
And the time will surely come, it will not be long delayed
when God fills the world with love, when God fills the world with love.
